

Person Specification - Travel Health Advice Centre (THAC) Intern

The following are considered essential or desirable for these posts:

	Essential	Desirable
Skills and Knowledge	Ability to work to deadlines and multi-task under pressure Methodical and organised approach to work and commitment to accuracy IT literate with a capacity to use a Patient Management System Good command of Microsoft Office software	Capable of working under own initiative
Experience	Successful delivery of objectives	Health sector experience e.g. general practice surgery Voluntary sector experience and understanding Experience of living, working or travelling in developing countries
Organisational Skills	Excellent administration and organisation skills Ability to cope with normal work pressures Willingness to take ownership and accountability Willingness to develop new skills and ideas and promote these in the working environment Willingness to work with colleagues who work mainly from home

Communication & People Skills	Excellent communication skills, both orally and in writing and confidence liaising and communicating with colleagues, client agencies and individuals Ability to convey and receive complex and sensitive information
Values and style	Wholly in sympathy with InterHealth's Christian ethos The willingness to work in a multidisciplinary team and with flexibility Friendly outgoing manner with ability to empathise with InterHealth's wide range of clients Collaborative and inclusive style of working	Interest in and/or commitment to relief and development and mission sectors